Key West: Located just 90 miles from Cuba, Key West is one of the sunniest cities in the country. This lively city is packed with beaches, historic sights and international restaurants. Take a walking tour to see some of the island's best architecture, courtyards and gardens or simply stroll in the footsteps of such famous citizens as Ernest Hemingway, Tennessee Williams and Thomas Edison.

Havana: Spend two days in Havana, a city that is both old and modern, calm and vibrant, deeply complicated and completely inviting. Rich in culture, history, sunny skies and sandy shores, Havana is filled with artists, designers and other creatives, a place where every art form comes alive. Havana is full of life with colorful buildings, urban plaza and eclectic architecture. Its cobbled streets are lined with classic cars. Salsa clubs and maybe an intense game of dominoes.

Stroll down the Prado, through the historic neighborhood of Vieja Habana (Old Havana) for a glimpse into the city's 16th-century heritage. Wander past the pastel hues of the Malecon, Havana's beloved oceanside boulevard. Enjoy an authentic Cuban lunch at a local paladar and go shopping at the Almacenes San Jose Artisans' Market, meeting business owners, workers and locals along the way. Tour the Havana Club Museum of Rum and enjoy a tasting before exploring a local organic farm. Visit Ernest Hemingway's residence, Finca Vigia, then venture to one of his favorite retreats, the nearby fishing village of Cojimar, the setting for "The Old Man and the Sea".

Cozumel: This laid-back Caribbean jewel of an island located just off the coast of the Yucatan Peninsula features warm blue waters, inviting beaches for sunbathing and strolling, glass-bottom boat tours and fishing charters. Cozumel is regarded as one of the top 10 sport fishing destinations in the world.

Choose from an outstanding array of optional dive outings and certifications, from basic beginner to advanced levels, as Cozumel is renowned as the premier dive site in the Western hemisphere.
